

WASHINGTON STATE COLLEGES'
FREE APPLICATION FOR FEDERAL STUDENT AID (FAFSA) PRIORITY FUNDING DEADLINE DATES
FOR 2010- 2011 FINANCIAL AID APPLICATIONS

Important tips to remember:

- Applying for financial aid on time is EXTREMELY important. You may not be considered for all financial aid programs if you miss the FAFSA priority funding deadline.
- The free online FAFSA application is available at www.fafsa.gov.
- The FAFSA priority funding deadline date is generally the date by which the school must receive your FAFSA data from the Federal Processor. Most schools recommend completing the FAFSA as soon after January 1st as possible and NO LATER than 1 week before the deadline for your school to ensure you meet the deadline (please allow more time if you are using the mail-in application). FAFSAs cannot be completed until January 1, 2010 for the 2010-2011 school year. You may want to ask individual schools for their recommendations.
- Some schools require admission by the FAFSA priority funding deadline as well as receipt of your FAFSA data from the Federal Processor by the listed deadline for priority funding. You may want to contact your school for details.
